Auction Rules and Instructions

1. Each guest will receive a bidder number with his/her program upon registration for the evening. Bidder numbers are used when placing a bid and to determine final charges for the evening. It is the responsibility of the individual to protect the level of confidentiality of his/her bidder number.
2. When bidding on silent auction items, please print your assigned bidder number LEGIBLY and clearly next to your bid.
3. In the silent auction you must raise the bid by at least the minimum bid increment stated on the bid sheet. If the bid is raised above the minimum bid increment, that is acceptable. Then the next bidder may continue using the minimum bid increment. Any bids with less than the minimum bid increment will be disqualified.
4. When bidding, please be sure to read the item description carefully. Certain restrictions may apply.
5. New this year, our bid sheets will have a "Buy It Now" option at the bottom. By writing your bidder number in the space below "Buy It Now", you will be the successful and final bidder on that item at the price already determined in that box.
6. If there are several guests bidding on one item at the close of that Silent Auction table, a member of the Silent Auction Committee will ask each bidder to write down their bid number and their highest bid on paper and submit it to the Committee Member. The Committee Member will announce at that time who submitted the highest bid.
7. There will be announcements made when sections of the silent auction tables are closing. Bid sheets will then be collected and the winning bidder will be posted on the board in the hallway. Copies of the winning bid sheets will be put with the auctioned item.
8. In the Live Auction, the auctioneer has the final authority over all biddings and closings.
9. In the Live Auction, the winning bidder will be brought a bid sheet, and his/her bidder number and signature will be filled in and filed in their bid envelope with the cashier.
10. An announcement will be made when auction volunteers are ready to begin check-out, approx. 30 minutes after the close of the Sponsorship Drive. There will be no check out available until after the Sponsorship Drive.
11. Winners must go to the cashier, pay for all items and receive a "Paid" receipt. Payment may be made in Cash, Check, Visa, MasterCard, Discover or Amex. Once you have your paid receipt, you may go to the pick up area and a committee member will retrieve your purchased items.
12. All items are to be paid for and picked up the night of the auction. No exceptions.
13. Purchases are final. No exchanges or refunds will be made.
14. St. Paul's Franklin does not appraise the value of auction items. Donors have provided estimated values. Please consult your tax advisor for rules concerning the tax deductibility of auction items. Generally, the excess of the bid amount over the estimated values is deductible, and no deduction is allowed if the bid is below the estimated value.
