CONFIRMATION

The word, “confirmation,” means “strengthening.” The young people being confirmed today have been strengthened by God’s Word. For the past two years they have been instructed in the Word in confirmation classes – an in-depth study of the teachings of the Lutheran Church with the Bible as the text book. This process traces its roots all the way back to the very first century after Jesus, when new Christians would go through a three year course of study before publicly declaring their trust in the God of the Bible.

Today we celebrate the work of the Holy Spirit who has worked through his Word to strengthen the faith of these young Christians. We also will have the opportunity to hear these young men and women publicly declare their faith in the Triune God.

We invite the Holy Spirit to strengthen the faith of everyone here through his powerful word and sacrament. We ask the Holy Spirit to help these confirmands remain faithful to the solemn promises they make before God today.

Following the bells in the 10 am service, the confirmands will process into the church, led by the pastors, as a class. Please stand and join in singing the opening hymn.

Minister: In the name of the Father and of the Son + and of the Holy Spirit.

Congregation: Amen.

M: Oh, how I love your law!

C: I meditate on it all day long.

M: Your commands make me wiser than my enemies,

C: For they are ever with me.

M: I have more insight than all my teachers,

C: For I meditate on your statutes.

M: How sweet are your words to my taste,

C: Sweeter than honey to my mouth! (Psalm 119:97-99, 103)

M: All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting, and training in righteousness,

C: So that the man of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work.
(2 Timothy 3:16,17)

M: Yet so often we have despised God's Word and failed to gladly hear and learn it. For this and all our sins, we bow before God and humbly ask his forgiveness.

C: Holy and merciful Father, I confess that I am by nature sinful and that I have disobeyed you in my thoughts, words, and actions. I have done what is evil and failed to do what is good. For this I deserve your punishment both now and in eternity. But I am truly sorry for my sins, and trusting in my Savior Jesus Christ, I pray: Lord, have mercy on me, a sinner.

M: God gave his Word so “that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name” (John 20:31). The Scriptures testify about Jesus, who lived a perfect life for you, died on the cross to pay for all your sins, and rose again to assure you of your salvation. Therefore, as a servant of Christ and by his authority, I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the Son + and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

M: O God, you form the minds of your faithful people into a single will. Make us love what you command and desire what you promise, that among the many changes of this world, our hearts may ever yearn for the lasting joys of heaven; through your Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C: Amen.

THE WORD OF GOD

FIRST LESSON:

1 SAMUEL 20:12-17

Then Jonathan said to David, “I swear by the LORD, the God of Israel, that I will surely sound out my father by this time the day after tomorrow! If he is favorably disposed toward you, will I not send you word and let you know? ¹³ But if my father intends to harm you, may the LORD deal with Jonathan, be it ever so severely, if I do not let you know and send you away in peace. May the LORD be with you as he has been with my father. ¹⁴ But show me unfailing kindness like the LORD’s kindness as long as I live, so that I may not be killed, ¹⁵ and do not ever cut off your kindness from my family—not even when the LORD has cut off every one of David’s enemies from the face of the earth.”

¹⁶ So Jonathan made a covenant with the house of David, saying, “May the LORD call David’s enemies to account.” ¹⁷ And Jonathan had David reaffirm his oath out of love for him, because he loved him as he loved himself.

SECOND LESSON:1 CORINTHIANS 13:1-13

If I speak in the tongues of men or of angels, but do not have love, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal. ² If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. ³ If I give all I possess to the poor and give over my body to hardship that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing.

⁴ Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. ⁵ It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. ⁶ Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. ⁷ It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.

⁸ Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away. ⁹ For we know in part and we prophesy in part, ¹⁰ but when completeness comes, what is in part disappears. ¹¹ When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put the ways of childhood behind me. ¹² For now we see only a reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known.

¹³ And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love.

Please Stand

GOSPEL:JOHN 13:31-35

When he was gone, Jesus said, "Now the Son of Man is glorified and God is glorified in him. ³² If God is glorified in him, God will glorify the Son in himself, and will glorify him at once.

³³ "My children, I will be with you only a little longer. You will look for me, and just as I told the Jews, so I tell you now: Where I am going, you cannot come.

³⁴ "A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. ³⁵ By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another."

CONFESSION OF FAITH

Each confirmand was given the opportunity to choose a Bible passage that held special significance to them. They were also asked to write why they chose that passage.

Logan John Abramowski

My passage is Psalm 50:15 – Call on me in the day of trouble; I will deliver you, and you will honor me

The reason I chose this passage is because it reminds me that God is far more powerful than anything on this earth. I can always trust in him to deliver me out of harm's way. It gives me confidence that he will always protect me. There are a lot of temptations in this world, but I know that I have nothing to fear because God is right there walking alongside me. I simply get to continue praising and thanking God for all the wonderful blessings he has given me by protecting me from sin and the devil all the way through my life. So I will keep walking with God, knowing full well that sin and the devil cannot touch me.

Quinn Scott Bradford

My passage is Revelation 2:10 – Be faithful, even to the point of death, and I will give you the crown of life.

I chose this passage because it helps remind me that God loves me, and sent his Son to be my Savior. His great gift is mine when I believe in him. This passage encourages me to live a faithful life. Living a faithful life means believing in the Gospel that he sent his Son to save us, it also means being faithful to his Law by trying to follow his Law in everything I do. It is important that I put God first in my life and be faithful to him. I pray that God would watch over me in everything I do, and that he would help me to stay faithful to his Son in everything.

Isabella Jolena Graetz

My passage is 2 Thessalonians 3:3 – The Lord is faithful, and he will strengthen you and protect you from the evil one.

I chose this Bible passage because it gives me peace. It gives me peace that God will always be here for me anytime I need him, and he will help me fight off Satan. I know that I will need God a lot in my future because there are so many temptations that I will have to fight off, but God promises to help me overcome those temptations. 2 Thessalonians 3:3 also gives me confidence in today's world where so many obstacles can get in the way of our faith. God will strengthen and protect me from them. I pray that my faith will continue to grow stronger every day.

Seth Alan Hernon

My passage is 1 Samuel 16:7 – The LORD does not look at the things people look at. People look at the outward appearance, but the LORD looks at the heart.

I chose this passage because it brings comfort to believers like me. Some people can be judgmental, especially during these years of my life. But our God loves each and every one of us. No matter how we look, or how we are on the outside, we are loved by our Savior. This teaches me that my God is a God of grace who doesn't judge me like the world, and through this passage, God encourages me to look past the outward appearance of other people.

Trevor Paul Hoffman

My passage is Romans 1:16 – For I am not ashamed of the gospel, because it is the power of God that brings salvation to everyone who believes.

I chose this passage because it shows me that I am saved because of God and his word. He gave us the Gospel. Without it we would be lost in sin. I hate to admit that I sometimes don't listen to God and that I sometimes blatantly do what I'm not supposed to do. This passage reminds me that I can be thankful for the Gospel and what it offers – eternal life in heaven. Sometimes I might feel like God messed something up with me, but then I'm reminded by my pastors, teachers, and parents that God blesses and loves me through the Gospel. I'm so thankful for those people. This passage comforts me by promising me that I will go to heaven and meet Jesus face to face, and the thought makes me so happy and excited I can't even put it into words.

Mara Renee Matus

My passage is Philippians 4:6 – Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God.

I chose this passage because I know that in my future there will be many obstacles and I'm going to be nervous and anxious about a lot of stuff that may come up. Whenever I think of this passage I remember that God wants to hear my prayers and requests and the he will always be with me and will always answer them. Sometimes I stress about everything on my own and forget to pray to God. Philippians 4:6 will remind and encourage me to continue to pray, to put all my anxieties and fears on him so I can have peace. I know that when I stay close to God and daily bring my requests, thanks, and praise, I will have peace and eternal life with him.

Brayden Jonathan Parato

My passage is Hebrews 13:8 – Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever.

This passage reminds me that Jesus will never, and has never left my side. This is important because, unlike people in this world, he will never leave me alone. I know that I can believe in what the bible says, and I know that it is true. This is also reassuring because the passage says "Jesus Christ is the same" meaning he will never change. I know that his promise to forgive the mistakes I have made will not change. In the future, he will be there when I need him. I can come to him with my problems, and he will listen to me.

Arthur Johnathan Petricek

My passage is John 15:5 – "I am the vine; you are the branches. If you remain in me and I in you, you will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing."

I chose this passage because it shows me that I can only do things with God. If I chose to carve my own path I can fall away and wither. This verse brings great strength in the fact that the Holy Spirit brings me to faith and will keep me connected to Jesus in his care and protection. I know that to go to heaven and to bear fruit I need to stay connected to God's vine, Jesus, and he will keep me from withering away.

Annelise Lorraine Schultz

My passage is John 16:33 – “I have told you these things, so that you may have peace. In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world.”

I chose this bible passage because this world is corrupted by sin. We disobey God’s command every day. We lie, we are conceited, and our hearts harden. Sin has made our world turn upside down and flip inside out. Because of sin, we can’t live the way God wants us to live. Because of sin, we have an abundance of worries, troubles, and fears. But, Jesus changed that. He defeated sin, death, and the power of the devil. Because of him, we have peace. Through faith in him, we have the hope of heaven. Our worries and burdens shrink, so that they do not trouble us any longer. We do not have to be afraid. With him protecting us, we have no fear. In this world we face difficulty and distractions, but with Jesus we overcome that. This passage reminds me that God is greater than all of our burdens, and he has conquered the world for us.

THE RITE OF CONFIRMATION

Those being confirmed stand

M: Brothers and sisters in Christ, our Lord Jesus said to his disciples: "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Therefore, go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age."

In obedience to the Lord's command, you have been baptized in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. You have been taught the precious truths of the Christian faith as confessed by the Evangelical Lutheran Church. You know what God has given you by his grace and what he expects of you as his dear child. You now have the privilege of receiving the Lord's body and blood in the Sacrament of Holy Communion.

You are here to make a public profession of your Christian faith. The apostle Paul, writing to the Romans, said: "If you confess with your mouth, 'Jesus is Lord' and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For it is with your heart that you believe and are justified, and it is with your mouth that you confess and are saved. Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved."

Therefore, lift up your hearts to the God of all grace and joyfully answer these questions.

Do you this day, in the presence of God and of this congregation, acknowledge that in Baptism, God gave you forgiveness of sins, life, and salvation? If so, answer: I do.

R: I do.

M: Do you reject the devil along with all his lies and empty promises? If so, answer: I do.

R: I do.

M: Do you believe in God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit? If so, answer: I do.

R: I do.

M: Do you believe all the books of the Bible to be the inspired Word of God? If so, answer: I do.

R: I do.

M: Do you believe that the teaching of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, as you have learned to know it from Luther's Small Catechism, is faithful and true to the Word of God? If so, answer: I do.

R: I do.

M: Do you intend to continue steadfast in this teaching and to endure all things, even death, rather than fall away from it? If so, answer: I do, and I ask God to help me.

R: I do, and I ask God to help me.

M: Do you intend faithfully to conform all your life to the teachings of God's Word, to be faithful in the use of the Word and sacrament, and in faith and action remain true to God—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit—as long as you live? If so, answer: I do, and I ask God to help me.

R: I do, and I ask God to help me.

Congregation please stand.

(The minister addresses the congregation.)

THE RESPONSIVE PRAYER

M: Since it is God alone who enables us both to will and to do his good pleasure, it is right for us, dear friends in Christ, to call on him for these confirmands, that he would graciously complete the good work which he has begun in them. Let us, therefore, bow our heads and pray.

Gracious Father, you have adopted these brothers and sisters in Baptism and anointed them with your Holy Spirit. Renew and strengthen them by that same Spirit so that they may continue to grow in faith and boldly confess you before others. Lord, in your mercy,

C: Hear our prayer.

M: Move them to faithfully hear your Holy Word and joyfully receive your Sacrament that they may again and again be assured of your gracious love and forgiveness. Lord, in your mercy,

C: Hear our prayer.

M: Give them the sincere desire to die each day to sin and put on the new self, created to be like God in true righteousness and holiness. Lord, in your mercy,

C: Hear our prayer.

M: Clothe them with the kindness, humility, and patience of Christ and so that they may live at peace with all the members of Christ's body. Lord, in your mercy,

C: Hear our prayer.

M: Protect them from the powers of evil, and give them the weapons to fight against the devil. Lord, in your mercy,

C: Hear our prayer.

M: Keep them faithful and holy so that they may inherit eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

C: Amen.

PRAYER OF THE CHURCH (8:00AM AND 6:30PM)

LORD'S PRAYER

C: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us.
Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and forever. Amen.

M: Brothers and sisters in Christ, what we as a Christian congregation have here asked our heavenly Father to confer on all of you, we now ask him to give each of you individually.
