THE INVOCATION

P: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you.

C: And also with you.

THE CONFESSION OF SINS

P: We have come into the presence of God, who created us to love and serve him as his dear children. But we have disobeyed him and deserve only his wrath and punishment. Therefore, let us confess our sins to him and plead for his mercy.

C: Merciful Father in heaven, I am altogether sinful from birth. In countless ways I have sinned against you and do not deserve to be called your child. But trusting in Jesus, my Savior, I pray: Have mercy on me according to your unfailing love. Cleanse me from my sin, and take away my guilt.

P: God, our heavenly Father has forgiven all your sins. By the perfect life and innocent death of our Lord Jesus Christ, he has removed your guilt forever. You are his own dear child. May God give you strength to live according to his will.

C: Amen.

P: In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C: (Spoken) Amen.

P: Our Lord Jesus Christ gave His Church the command to baptize when he said: "All authority in heaven and earth has been given to me. Therefore, go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you."

Scripture makes plain the universal need for Baptism. As children of Adam, we belong to a fallen race. From our parents we inherit a sinful nature and would be lost forever unless delivered by our Lord Jesus Christ. He willingly took on himself the curse of sin and by his death on the cross redeemed us and all people.

Christ's almighty Word gives Baptism its power to save. The apostle Peter declares, "Baptism now saves you." Scripture also clearly teaches that the power and promise of Baptism is intended for young and old alike. On the day of Pentecost the apostle testified, "The promise is for you and your children and for all who are far off – for all whom the Lord our God will call." By water and the Spirit, we are born again and united with Christ and his people as members of the Church.

In having children baptized, parents do what is God-pleasing. Jesus himself invited little children to become a part of his kingdom when he said: "Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. I tell you the truth, anyone who will not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it." And he took the children in his arms, put his hands on them, and blessed them.

The pastor marks the sign of the cross on the child who has been baptized and says:

P: Receive the sign of the cross on the head and heart to mark you as a redeemed child of Christ.

Prayer

P: Let us pray. Holy God, mighty Lord, gracious Father, through your stern judgment the unbelieving world was destroyed by the flood, but according to your great mercy, you saved Noah and his family. You engulfed stubborn Pharaoh and his army in the waters of the Red Sea but led your people through the same waters to safety on dry land. In the waters of the Jordan your own Son was baptized and anointed with the Spirit. By these signs you foreshadowed the precious, cleansing bath which you give us in Holy Baptism.

Clinging to your command and promise, we ask that you would look with favor on Micaela. Through the water of baptism all sin inherited from Adam, and any other evil she may do, was drowned in her. Set her apart from the unbelieving world and hold her safe and secure in the holy ark of the Church. Keep her always fervent in spirit and joyful in hope so that she may honor your holy name and at last receive, together with all your people, the promised inheritance of eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

C: (Spoken) Amen.

The Apostles' Creed

P: Let us confess the faith of the Church, the faith into which Micaela has been baptized, the Apostles' Creed.

ALL: I believe in God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day he rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty. From there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Public Recognition

The pastor asks the sponsors:

P: Before the Lord and his Church, I ask you, was Micaela Kelly Cannistra baptized in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit?

Response: Yes, Micaela was baptized in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

The pastor, laying his hand on the one baptized, says:

P: The almighty God – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit – has forgiven all your sins. By your baptism, you have been born again and made a dear child of your Father in heaven. May God strengthen you to live in your baptismal grace all the days of your life. Peace be with you. Amen.

PRAYER AND PRAISE

P: In the peace of forgiveness, let us praise the Lord.

OH, TASTE AND SEE

C: Oh, taste and see that the Lord is good. Bless - ed are they who take ref - uge in him. Your Word, O Lord, is eter - nal; it stands firm in the heav - ens. Your faith - ful - ness con - tin - ues for - ev - er. Oh, taste and see that the Lord is good. Bless - ed are they who take ref - uge in him.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

P: Let us pray. Lord our strength, the battle of good and evil rages within and around us, and our ancient foe tempts us with his deceits and empty promises. Keep us steadfast in your Word, and when we fall, raise us up again and restore us through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C: A - men.

THE FIRST LESSON Deuteronomy 26:5-10

Moses reminds God's people of God's actions on their behalf. He especially points out their deliverance from the misery, toil, and oppression they had experienced in the land of Egypt. Thanksgiving for such blessings lead them to worship the Lord and to bring him the firstfruits of their crops.

⁵ Then you shall declare before the LORD your God: "My father was a wandering Aramean, and he went down into Egypt with a few people and lived there and became a great nation, powerful and numerous. ⁶ But the Egyptians mistreated us and made us suffer, putting us to hard labor. ⁷ Then we cried out to the LORD, the God of our fathers, and the LORD heard our voice and saw our misery, toil and oppression. ⁸ So the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, with great terror and with miraculous signs and wonders. ⁹ He brought us to this place and gave us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey; ¹⁰ and now I bring the firstfruits of the soil that you, O LORD, have given me." Place the basket before the LORD your God and bow down before him.

THE SECOND LESSON Romans 10:8b-13

God's Word proclaims to us the good news of salvation and works faith in our hearts through which we are saved. This faith expresses itself through an outward confession of faith in Jesus as our Lord and Savior.

“The word is near you; it is in your mouth and in your heart,” that is, the word of faith we are proclaiming: ⁹ That if you confess with your mouth, “Jesus is Lord,” and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. ¹⁰ For it is with your heart that you believe and are justified, and it is with your mouth that you confess and are saved. ¹¹ As the Scripture says, “Anyone who trusts in him will never be put to shame.” ¹² For there is no difference between Jew and Gentile—the same Lord is Lord of all and richly blesses all who call on him, ¹³ for, “Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.”

THE GOSPEL LESSON..... Luke 4:1-13

Jesus begins his ministry by battling with the devil. The devil confronts him with three temptations. Each time Jesus uses God's Word to defeat Satan. Jesus' victory over Satan started here and ended in complete and total victory on the cross. Thanks be to God for our champion, the Lord Jesus Christ.

^{4:1}Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the desert, ² where for forty days he was tempted by the devil. He ate nothing during those days, and at the end of them he was hungry. ³The devil said to him, “If you are the Son of God, tell this stone to become bread.” ⁴ Jesus answered, “It is written: ‘Man does not live on bread alone.’” ⁵The devil led him up to a high place and showed him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world. ⁶ And he said to him, “I will give you all their authority and splendor, for it has been given to me, and I can give it to anyone I want to. ⁷ So if you worship me, it will all be yours.” ⁸ Jesus answered, “It is written: ‘Worship the Lord your God and serve him only.’” ⁹ The devil led him to Jerusalem and had him stand on the highest point of the temple. “If you are the Son of God,” he said, “throw yourself down from here. ¹⁰ For it is written: ‘He will command his angels concerning you to guard you carefully; ¹¹ they will lift you up in their hands, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone.’” ¹² Jesus answered, “It says: ‘Do not put the Lord your God to the test.’” ¹³ When the devil had finished all this tempting, he left him until an opportune time.

C: Praise be to you, O Christ!

Announcements

NEW CHURCH ORGAN: God has blessed St. Paul’s for 150 years with his Grace. Out of thanks for the Grace of God, we have begun to undertake the project of replacing our existing organ. The final cost of the organ was $58,150. To date, we have received $49,977. Confident that the Lord will continue to bless our efforts in raising the funds, the decision was made by the leadership of St. Paul’s to purchase the new organ now. By ordering it sooner than later, there were some significant cost savings to St. Paul’s. During this past week, the new organ was installed here at St. Paul’s.

FOOD/PANTRY SHOWER FOR PASTOR HOFF & HIS FAMILY: St. Paul’s would like to welcome Pastor Hoff and his family by hosting a food/pantry shower for them. Non-perishable foods and household items, such as cleaning supplies, laundry supplies, etc. If you prefer, a box will be available for gift cards as well. These items may be brought to the afternoon installation service.

VACATION BIBLE CAMP 2016: The dates for this summer’s Vacation Bible Camp are July 25-29. We will once again use the staff from Camp Phillip for our VBC. More information will follow later this Spring.

MARY MARTHA SALES UPDATE: The Bake Sale that Mary Martha held in November, in conjunction with Mission Festival, raised $371.75. The Christmas Cookie Sale in December brought in $693.00. So far, $250 has been sent to Costa Maya Ministries in Mexico and $350 has been used to purchase new Easter banners for our church. Thank you to all who took the time to bake for these two events. Thank you also to those who purchased these items or made cash donations. Without you, none of this would have been possible.

ST. PAUL’S SCIENCE FAIR AND BOOK FAIR: The St. Paul’s School Science Fair is being held on Thursday, February 25th at 6:30 PM. The students work very hard on these projects, and would love for you to come and learn more about their work! While you are there, check out our awesome book fair! If you cannot visit on the 25th. The science projects will be available to view after church on February 28th. The book fair will also be open.

MIDWEEK LENT 2016: "Irony" is not a word that most people would ascribe to Jesus' passion. However, certain events in the gospel accounts—Caiaphas' unintentional prophesy, the Jewish leaders' hypocrisy, and others—are actually quite ironic. This year’s theme is “Ironies of the Passion” will lead us to learn about the unique and lasting significance of Jesus' ministry, death, and resurrection. The services are on Wednesdays beginning on February 10th at 3:30 pm & 6:30 pm. The schedule is:

- Ash Wednesday (Feb. 10) – “This Man Went Home Justified” (Pastor Adams)
- Lent 2 (Feb. 17) – “It is Better that One Man Die for the People (Pastor Unnasch)
- Lent 3 (Feb. 24) – “He Had Been Waiting to See Jesus” (Pastor Gaertner)
- Lent 4 (Mar. 2) – “We Have No King but Caesar” (Pastor Hoff)
- Lent 5 (Mar. 9) – “Don’t You Fear God” (Pastor Ellenberger)
- Lent 6 (Mar. 16) – “Not During the Feast” (Pastor Marshall)

INSTALLATION OF PASTOR JACOB HOFF: St. Paul’s welcomes Pastor Jacob Hoff as an Associate Pastor of our congregation. We invite you to join us for his Installation Service today at 3:00 pm. As many of you know, Pastor Hoff joins us from Sterling, Virginia. Pastor Ian Headrick, one of the Associate Pastors at Christ Lutheran in Big Bend will be delivering the sermon. The students from our Christian Day School and Adult Choir will be participating in the service as well. Following the worship service, there will be a meal to which everyone is invited to join us.

SUNDAY ADULT BIBLE CLASS: The theme for our Sunday Bible Class is: “The House of the Lord.” God intended for Adam and Eve to live forever with him in the Garden of Eden. What a wonderful proposition – perfect people living with the perfect Creator. But Adam and Eve sinned and had to leave the Garden. God could have let them go their own way and then started over. Instead, he again made it possible for him to live among his people. How he did that is the subject of this study. Using examples of the types of homes we might live in, we will see God’s plan for making “houses” in which he could live among us here on earth and in eternity. Those “homes” are:

- The Lord’s First House (The Garden of Eden)
- The Lord’s Mobile Home (The Tabernacle)
- The Lord’s Palace (The Temple)
- The Lord’s Model Home (Jesus Christ)
- The Lord’s Current Residence (The Church)
- The Lord’s Dream House (Heaven)

Please come and join us on Sunday mornings at 9:15am.
