Our Worship Service

The Common Service with Communion Christian Worship p. 15

We are free from the control of money because we are controlled by God. And that's what Christian stewardship is. Instead of being controlled by money and possessions, we are under the control of the Lord; by his grace we can use the money, possessions, time, and talents he has given to us in service to him. In the coming weeks we'll look at various aspects of how we use the money God has given to us

THE CONFESSION OF SINS

P: Beloved in the Lord: let us draw near with a true heart and confess our sins to God our Father, asking him in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to grant us forgiveness.

C: Holy and merciful Father, I confess that I am by nature sinful and that I have disobeyed you in my thoughts, words and actions. I have done what is evil and failed to do what is good. For this I deserve your punishment both now and in eternity.

But I am truly sorry for my sins, and trusting in my Savior Jesus Christ, I pray:
 Lord have mercy on me, a sinner.

LORD, HAVE MERCY

Kyrie

C: Lord, have mer - cy on us. Christ, have mer - cy

P: God, our heavenly Father, has been merciful to us and has given his only Son to be the atoning sacrifice for our sins. Therefore, as a called servant of Christ and by his authority, I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

THE FIRST LESSON.....Acts 19:11-20

The gospel's power freed many Ephesians from the sin and unbelief that had once enslaved them, and the fruit of their repentance included the destruction of what had once been so valuable to them.

¹¹God did extraordinary miracles through Paul, ¹²so that even handkerchiefs and aprons that had touched him were taken to the sick, and their illnesses were cured and the evil spirits left them. ¹³Some Jews who went around driving out evil spirits tried to invoke the name of the Lord Jesus over those who were demon-possessed. They would say, "In the name of Jesus, whom Paul preaches, I command you to come out." ¹⁴Seven sons of Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, were doing this. ¹⁵[One day] the evil spirit answered them, "Jesus I know, and I know about Paul, but who are you?" ¹⁶Then the man who had the evil spirit jumped on them and overpowered them all. He gave them such a beating that they ran out of the house naked and bleeding. ¹⁷When this became known to the Jews and Greeks living in Ephesus, they were all seized with fear, and the name of the Lord Jesus was held in high honor. ¹⁸Many of those who believed now came and openly confessed their evil deeds. ¹⁹A number who had practiced sorcery brought their scrolls together and burned them publicly. When they calculated the value of the scrolls, the total came to fifty thousand drachmas. ²⁰In this way the word of the Lord spread widely and grew in power.

THE PSALM OF THE DAY.....Psalm 16

Christian Worship pg. 68

Psalm continues on next page

Keep me safe, O God,*

for in you I take refuge.

I said to the LORD, "You are my Lord;*

apart from you I have no good thing."

I have set the LORD always before me.*

Because he is at my right hand, I will not be shaken.

My heart is glad and my tongue rejoices;

my body also will rest secure,

because you will not abandon me to the grave,*

nor will you let your Holy One see decay.

You have made known to me the path of life;*

you will fill me with joy in your presence.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son*

and to the Holy Spirit,

as it was in the beginning,*

is now, and will be forever. Amen.

THE SECOND LESSON..... Corinthians 8:7-12

We find true riches in the gospel of Jesus Christ alone, who is a personal demonstration of grace and giving.

⁷But just as you excel in everything — in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in complete earnestness and in your love for us -see that you also excel in this grace of giving. ⁸I am not commanding you, but I want to test the sincerity of your love by comparing it with the earnestness of others. ⁹For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, so that you through his poverty might become rich. ¹⁰And here is my advice about what is best for you in this matter: Last year you were the first not only to give but also to have the desire to do so. ¹¹Now finish the work, so that your eager willingness to do it may be matched by your completion of it, according to your means. ¹²For if the willingness is there, the gift is acceptable according to what one has, not according to what he does not have.

ANTHEM –(10:30 am)“Rock of Ages”

Soloist: Dick Miller; Harmonica: John Mertz

Soloist:

Rock of Ages, cleft for me, Let me hide myself in thee;
Let the water and the blood From thy riven side which flowed
Be of sin the double cure: Cleanse me from its guilt and pow'r.

Not the labors of my hands Can fulfill thy law's demands.
Could my zeal no respite know, Could my tears forever flow,
All for sin could not atone; Thou must save and thou alone.

Congregation Joins:

Nothing in my hand I bring, Simply to thy cross I cling;
Naked, come to thee for dress, Helpless, look to thee for grace.
Foul, I to the fountain fly -- Wash me, Savior, or I die!

While I draw this fleeting breath, When mine eyelids close in death,
When I soar to worlds unknown, See thee on thy judgment throne,
Rock of Ages, cleft for me, Let me hide myself in thee!

THE GOSPEL LESSONLuke 16:10-15

C: Glo - ry be to you, O Lord!

Jesus makes an important distinction between “worldly wealth” and “true riches.”

¹⁰“Whoever can be trusted with very little can also be trusted with much, and whoever is dishonest with very little will also be dishonest with much. ¹¹So if you have not been trustworthy in handling worldly wealth, who will trust you with true riches? ¹²And if you have not been trustworthy with someone else's property, who will give you property of your own? ¹³“No servant can serve two masters. Either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and Money.” ¹⁴The Pharisees, who loved money, heard all this and were sneering at Jesus. ¹⁵He said to them, “You are the ones who justify yourselves in the eyes of men, but God knows your hearts. What is highly valued among men is detestable in God's sight.

C: Praise be to you, O Christ!

THE NICENE CREED

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary, and became fully human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate. He suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who in unity with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy Christian and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

DISTRIBUTION OF THE LORD’S SUPPER

Today we celebrate the Lord’s Supper. The Lord’s Supper is a miracle. By God’s power, the Lord’s body and blood are with the bread and wine. In the Lord’s Supper, God gives strength and comfort to His believers. While the Lord’s Supper is first about our relationship with Jesus, it is also about our relationship with fellow believers. Therefore, we practice “close communion.” We invite all who are members of St. Paul’s or visitors who belong to our WELS fellowship to receive the Lord’s Supper with us. If you would like to learn more about being a member of our family at St. Paul’s, please feel free to contact the pastor.

Announcements

VOTERS MEETING RESULTS: On Tuesday, January 13, a voter's meeting was held to update the congregation on the various activities and work accomplished by the various boards and committees of the congregation. In addition, the Church Council presented a recommendation from the Board of Elders to the voters to call a second pastor to shepherd St Paul's. The assembly reviewed the recommendation, discussed the gifts and abilities we are seeking in a second pastor, and, after a robust discussion, approved the recommendation. Following the action by the voters, District President Rutschow was informed so that he may begin the process of developing a call list for our consideration. The Board of Elders is currently in the process of drafting the formal call letter. Please watch future bulletins and the St Paul's website for information regarding an upcoming call meeting. We continue to rely on the Holy Spirit to guide our efforts and bless the ministry of St. Paul's.

MARY MARTHA: The Mary Martha Society will meet on Tuesday, January 20th at 6:30pm. Mr. Mark Vance will be giving a presentation on the work of Christian Aid and Relief. Anyone is invited to come.

BOARD OF ELDERS: The Board of Elders will meet on Wednesday, January 21st at 6:30pm.

NO ADULT BIBLE CLASS OR SUNDAY SCHOOL NEXT SUNDAY: There will be no Adult Bible Class or Sunday School due to the Praise Service being at 9:00am.

HOT LUNCH COOKS: We are looking for hot lunch cooks for the months of January, February and March. If you are able to help, please contact Jaime Petricek at (414) 423-0835.

YEAR END OFFERING STATEMENTS: The Year End Offering statements are in the church mailboxes.

FUTURE BLOOD DRIVE: We would like to once again have a Blood Drive here at St. Paul's. It is a great way for us to reach out into the community. It is also a great way for us to help others through the blood donations. The Blood Center of Wisconsin provides many tools to ensure success of a blood drive, but nothing replaces a team to make the drive happen. If you are interested in being part of team to help organize a blood drive, please talk to Pastor Adams for more information.

NEW SERMON SERIES BEGINS TODAY: God has given us many different areas in our lives to manage. One of those areas is the management of the treasures that he gives us. Over the next three weeks, we will take a look at this area under the theme: "True Riches."

January 18 & 19 - "True Riches – Called to be Free" - We are free from the control of money because we are controlled by God. And that's what Christian stewardship is. Instead of being controlled by money and possessions, we are under the control of the Lord; by his grace we can use the money, possessions, time, and talents he has given to us in service to him. In the coming weeks we'll look at various aspects of how we use the money God has given to us.

January 25 & 26 – Praise Service

February 1 & 2 – "True Riches – Called to Give our Best" - It's possible to give your money away without giving yourself, but it's impossible to give away yourself without giving away your money. Please understand that what God ultimately desires is not your wealth. How silly a thought would it be that the God who created the universe needs material goods from us! Rather, God who created us to be in a loving relationship with us, desires our hearts. However, when we give freely to him the thing which the world holds on to most tightly, the thing that grips the hearts of many, it's a tangible expression of love to God. It shows that our hearts belong to him, that he is truly present in our hearts. For this grace we give thanks.

February 8 & 9 – "True Riches – Called to be Content" - Contentment has a lot to do with Christian giving because contentment gives us freedom. If we are content we are freed from having to spend money on what we don't really need; we are free to have better and sharper priorities. If we are content we are free from the message of the world to collect as much stuff as we can. If we are content we are free to give more to the Lord. We are free to know that the Lord is the most important Person in our lives. With those truths ringing in our ears we ask God to make us more content!

ANNUAL PRAISE SERVICE FEATURING KOINE: On Sunday, January 25th, we will be having our Annual Praise Service featuring Koine. On Sunday, January 25th, we will have one service at 9:00am. They will be having a concert beginning at 10:30am as well. (There will still be a worship service on Monday, January 26th at 6:30pm.) Please mark your calendars and come and join us. This service is also a great opportunity to invite your friends, relatives and neighbors to join us for worship.
