BOOK FAIR UPDATE: The Fall 2021 St. Paul's Book Fair has come to a close. A sincere THANK YOU to every St. Paul's family, and extended family member who visited the Book Fair on Parents Day, before, during or after school! Because of your generosity, the love of literacy is making a huge impact at St. Paul's with new books for classrooms libraries, the St. Paul's School Library, guided reading books as well as classroom novel sets. Numerous books were also very generously purchased from the Teacher Wish Lists, for classrooms! Congratulations to the twelve poster winners from the daily drawing. The coin drive was an amazing contest with a new winner this year, for Miss Schmidt's Room in first place. Still in a strong second place was Mrs. Manske's Kindergarten. The Coin Contest saw such high participation that most classroom teachers were able to pick out additional books for their classrooms. The book fair was only possible, due to all the spectacular volunteers that gave their time! A sincere and warm Thank You to Gail Stuesser, Mary Boettcher, Jaime Petricek, Jean Schulmeister, Mary Schwabe, Sarah Carabacan, Jackie Huettl, Jennifer Koenig, Carla Zoric, Ashley Maiwald, Sandi Adelman and Gary Totic!
