Easter Sunrise Service

6:00am

---

Welcome

We welcome all who worship with us this morning. "He is not here! He is risen!" These words are the glorious announcement of the angels to the women on Easter Sunday. They are the victory cry for Jesus, the King of Kings and Lord of Lords, who has conquered sin, death and hell by the resurrection. They are the proof that we need that the good news of Jesus saving us is true and certain. They are the words that make us sure of our own resurrection. They are "the words of eternal life."

"What a Difference a Day Makes!"

Quiet Meditation before service
Church Bells

*The Christ Candle returns to the sanctuary.
It reminds us that the Light of the World, Jesus Christ,
is once again alive and shining brightly to the world.*

Opening Hymn..... "Were You There?"
Sung to the tune of CW #119

Were you there when God raised him from the tomb?
Were you there when God raised him from the tomb?
Oh, sometimes it causes me to tremble, tremble, tremble.
Were you there when God raised him from the tomb?

Please Stand

Call to Worship

P: He is risen!
C: (Spoken) He is risen indeed!
P: Why do you look for the living among the dead?
C: (Spoken) He is not here. He has risen, just as he said.
P: Hallelujah! Praise the Lord! Death has been swallowed up in victory!
C: (Spoken) Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death is your sting?
P: The sting of death is sin and the power of sin is the law,
C: (Spoken) But thanks be to God! He gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Hallelujah!

Confession and Absolution of Sin

P: As we gather early this morning to marvel at the empty tomb of Jesus, we must confess we are not worthy to come into God's presence. Let us confess our sins.

C: Holy and merciful Father, I confess that I am by nature sinful and that I have disobeyed you in my thoughts, words and actions. I have done what is evil and failed to do what is good. For this I deserve your punishment both now and in eternity. But I am truly sorry for my sins, and trusting in my Savior Jesus Christ, I pray: Lord, have mercy on me, a sinner.

P: God, our heavenly Father, has been merciful to us and has given his only Son to be the atoning sacrifice for our sins. Therefore, as a called servant of Christ and by his authority, I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C: The Lord is risen indeed! We thank you, God, for the joys you give us this morning. This is the day the Lord has made. Let us rejoice and be glad in it! Hallelujah!

Response..... “He's Risen! He's Risen!”
Christian Worship #143, verses 4 & 5

1. What a Difference a Day made for Peter and John

Scripture Reading.....John 20:1-9

<sup>20:1</sup> Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene went to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the entrance. <sup>2</sup> So she came running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one Jesus loved, and said, "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we don't know where they have put him!" <sup>3</sup> So Peter and the other disciple started for the tomb. <sup>4</sup> Both were running, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. <sup>5</sup> He bent over and looked in at the strips of linen lying there but did not go in. <sup>6</sup> Then Simon Peter, who was behind him, arrived and went into the tomb. He saw the strips of linen lying there, <sup>7</sup> as well as the burial cloth that had been around Jesus' head. The cloth was folded up by itself, separate from the linen. <sup>8</sup> Finally the other disciple, who had reached the tomb first, also went inside. He saw and believed. <sup>9</sup> (They still did not understand from Scripture that Jesus had to rise from the dead.)

Meditation .....by Pastor

As you think about Holy Week and Easter, there is often one day that get overlooked. What day don't we often think about? Saturday. Can you imagine what the Saturday of that first Holy Week must have felt like to the disciples? They may have felt like failures. The week had started good as they walked into Jerusalem with the people cheering and laying down palm branches on the road. By the end of the week, they forsake Jesus. Judas would betray Jesus. Peter would deny him. They all ran as he was taken captive. A few of them, like Peter and John, had crept around in the shadows to see what was going to happen. When they looked back on their behavior over the last couple of days, it wasn't a pretty sight.

Did the disciples have doubts in Jesus? Things did happen the way that Jesus said they were, but it wasn't the way they wanted to happen. Did they wonder if they had wasted the last three years of their lives? They had looked to Jesus as the Messiah. They had told others that he was the Savior. And now? He's dead!

They were afraid. If the Jewish leaders could kill Jesus, were they safe? It also was the Sabbath. They couldn't work. They couldn't go anywhere. They had plenty of time to think about the events they had just witnessed. They had seen Jesus feed the multitudes, calm the storms and even raise the dead. But now he was dead himself. They would soon see what a difference a day would make. All their failures, guilt and fears would be removed. Jesus is alive! Their darkness and gloom would soon be scattered and broken.

Senior Choir Anthem..... “Scatter the Darkness, Break the Gloom”

*Scatter the darkness, break the gloom; Sun, reveal an empty tomb
Shining with joy for all our sorrows, Hope and peace for all tomorrows,
Life uneclipsed by doubt and dread; Christ has risen from the dead!
Bearing the standard from on high
As the Lamb of God to die; He who for us, so cruelly treated,
Lives again our foes defeated! Where is your sting, O death and grave?
Christ has shown His strength to save!
Banners of triumph, be unfurled! Trumpets, sound throughout the world!
Crying and sighs, give way to singing: Life from death, our Lord is bringing!
Let there begin the jubilee – Christ has gained the victory!
Let there begin the jubilee – Christ has gained the victory!*

2. What a Difference a Day made for Mary Magdalene

Scripture Reading..... John 20:10-18

<sup>10</sup> Then the disciples went back to their homes, <sup>11</sup> but Mary stood outside the tomb crying. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb <sup>12</sup> and saw two angels in white, seated where Jesus' body had been, one at the head and the other at the foot. <sup>13</sup> They asked her, "Woman, why are you crying?" "They have taken my Lord away," she said, "and I don't know where they have put him." <sup>14</sup> At this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not realize that it was Jesus. <sup>15</sup> "Woman," he said, "why are you crying? Who is it you are looking for?" Thinking he was the gardener, she said, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have put him, and I will get him." <sup>16</sup> Jesus said to her, "Mary." She turned toward him and cried out in Aramaic, "Rabboni!" (which means Teacher). <sup>17</sup> Jesus said, "Do not hold on to me, for I have not yet returned to the Father. Go instead to my brothers and tell them, 'I am returning to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.'" <sup>18</sup> Mary Magdalene went to the disciples with the news: "I have seen the Lord!" And she told them that he had said these things to her.

Meditation .....by Pastor

O Mary. It is obvious that Mary expected nothing to happen that morning except to find her Lord lying instead. She stood there outside the tomb crying. In her grief and sadness she could hardly think clearly. She gets up enough courage to look in the tomb. As she looks in the tomb, she sees two angels. The sight of these angels isn't even enough to take away her grief and sadness. She had never seen an angel. All she can say: "They have taken my Lord away," she said, "and I don't know where they have put him." She wanted to be with her Lord and Teacher one more time. She turns around, and thinks she sees the "gardener." Again, she has only one thing on her mind - "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have put him, and I will get him." The only explanation she has for Jesus not being there is that someone has stolen the body.

Then it happened. He speaks one little word: "Mary." Everything changed. What a difference a day would make. Easter would change everything.

Jesus also knows when you are grieving, hurting, lonely, depressed, frustrated or experiencing a 100 or more emotions. All he needs to say is: "Brian" or "John" or anyone of a 100 or more different names. He know how to comfort us, calm us, encourage us and strengthen us. Mary would look at each new day in the future in a different way. Easter enables each of us to look at our lives differently. We are Sons and Daughter of our King.

Congregation Hymn ..... "O Sons and Daughters of the King"

Christian Worship #165, verses 1-3

1 O sons and daughters of the King,
 2 On that first morn-ing of the week,
 3 An an-gel bade their sor-row flee,
 Whom heav'n-ly hosts in glo-ry sing,
 Be-fore the day be-gan to break,
 For thus he spoke un-to the three,
 To-day the grave has lost its sting!
 The Mar-ys went their Lord to seek.
 "Your Lord will go to Gal-i-lee."
 Al-le-lu-ia! Al-le-lu-ia! Al-le-lu-ia!

3. What a Difference a Day made for the Disciples

Scripture Reading..... John 20:19-23

<sup>19</sup> On the evening of that first day of the week, when the disciples were together, with the doors locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you!" <sup>20</sup> After he said this, he showed them his hands and side. The disciples were overjoyed when they saw the Lord. <sup>21</sup> Again Jesus said, "Peace be with you! As the Father has sent me, I am sending you." <sup>22</sup> And with that he breathed on them and said, "Receive the Holy Spirit. <sup>23</sup> If you forgive anyone his sins, they are forgiven; if you do not forgive them, they are not forgiven."

Meditation .....by Pastor

We live in a world that is desperately looking for peace. Much of the world will never find it because they think that peace can be found in agreements, contracts, negotiations, power and force. True peace cannot be found in any of those things.

It can be found only in the empty tomb. Jesus' disciples saw that on Easter Sunday evening. They are behind locked doors. They were afraid. They were ready to jump at almost any sound. Then things changed. Jesus was standing there with them.

"Peace be with you!" It was a common greeting. But it was more than that this evening. With those words Jesus assured his disciples and us that we now have peace with God. His death brought them peace.

Have you ever gone swimming in a pool or a lake that is perfectly calm? Then you do a cannon ball. A big splash goes up (some of us more than others.). But eventually, it will return to calm. That's what Jesus does for his disciples. The last days were filled with waves. What a difference a day would make! Jesus brings them peace.

That same peace is yours and mine through faith. What a difference a day makes! In the waves of life, he also brings us peace. The empty tomb reminds us that in the darkest of moments in our lives, we have peace. Our darkness is scattered. We have peace.

Congregation Hymn ..... "Morning Breaks Upon the Tomb"
Christian Worship #159

4. What a Difference a Day (Week) made for Thomas

Scripture Reading..... John 20:24-28

<sup>24</sup> Now Thomas (called Didymus), one of the Twelve, was not with the disciples when Jesus came. <sup>25</sup> So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord!" But he said to them, "Unless I see the nail marks in his hands and put my finger where the nails were, and put my hand into his side, I will not believe it." <sup>26</sup> A week later his disciples were in the house again, and Thomas was with them. Though the doors were locked, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you!" <sup>27</sup> Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here; see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it into my side. Stop doubting and believe." <sup>28</sup> Thomas said to him, "My Lord and my God!"

Meditation .....by Pastor

Do you ever have doubts? That's really a stupid question isn't it. The truth is that we all have doubts at one time or another. We are in good company if we do have doubts. Think of just a few people in the bible who doubted. Abraham's wife doubted that she was going to have a child in her old age. John the Baptist doubted after he was thrown into prison and he asked Jesus: "Are you really the Messiah or should we look for someone else?" Then there is Thomas. He would not believe the other 10 disciples. He had to see Jesus with his own eyes.

What can we do to get rid of doubt? Nothing, really. There is no cure on this earth that will take away all your doubts. There is only one who can. That is Jesus. He stands before us showing us his hands and his feet. He does that not to put us into our place, he does it to assure us that he is alive. Jesus removed Thomas' doubts. He removes our doubts as well. What a difference a day (week) makes for us.

Congregation Hymn ..... "O Sons and Daughters of the King"
Christian Worship #165, verses 4-8

4 That night th' a - pos - tles met in fear;
 5 When Thom - as af - ter - wards had heard

A - mong them came their Lord most dear
That Je - sus had ful - filled his word,

And said, "Peace be un - to you here."
He doubt - ed that is was the Lord.

Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia!

6 "Thomas, behold my side," said he,
"My hands, my feet, my body see;
And doubt not, but believe in me."
Alleluia!

8 Blessèd are they that have not seen
And yet whose faith has constant been;
In life eternal they shall reign.
Alleluia!

7 No longer Thomas then denied;
He saw the feet, the hands, the side;
"You are my Lord and God," he cried.
Alleluia!

5. What a Difference a Day makes for Us

Scripture Reading..... 1 Corinthians 15:19-26

<sup>19</sup> If only for this life we have hope in Christ, we are to be pitied more than all men. <sup>20</sup> But Christ has indeed been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. <sup>21</sup> For since death came through a man, the resurrection of the dead comes also through a man. <sup>22</sup> For as in Adam all die, so in Christ all will be made alive. <sup>23</sup> But each in his own turn: Christ, the firstfruits; then, when he comes, those who belong to him. <sup>24</sup> Then the end will come, when he hands over the kingdom to God the Father after he has destroyed all dominion, authority and power. <sup>25</sup> For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. <sup>26</sup> The last enemy to be destroyed is death.

Congregation Hymn ..... "Christ the Lord is Risen Today" Christian Worship #149, verses 1-5

Meditation .....by Pastor

Don't you love Easter? I do. It is one of those Sundays in the church year that we pull out all the stops. The bare looking church on Friday now is filled with flowers, palms and life. The alleluias return. We sing the hymns we love. There is an excitement that fills the air.

But what happens with all that excitement if Jesus is still dead. We have all heard the phrase, "It's not important if you win or lose, it's how you play the game that is important."

Yea, right? It is a lot nicer to win than to lose. Even though we all think that we may be able to lose graciously, I think, all of us like victory better than being defeated. We can even see that in the familiar phrase: "The thrill of victory, and the agony of defeat." This morning we celebrate the biggest victory in all the world of all time.

This is a celebration that we can into our lives every single day. Not just today, but forever. Does Easter make a difference? It does! What a difference a day makes! He is risen!

Senior Choir Anthem..... "Easter Angel Song"

*He is not here, for He is risen. Come see the place where Jesus lay.
 Now go and share the wond'rous story: Christ the Lord is ris'n today.
 He is not here, for He is risen. Come see the place where Jesus lay.
 Now go and share the wond'rous story: "Christ the Lord is ris'n today."
 Although He was crucified at the hands of sinful men,
 Remember how He told you that He would rise again.
 So why do you seek the living among the dead?
 Jesus is risen as He said! He is not here, for He is risen.
 Come see the place where Jesus lay.
 Now go and share the wond'rous story: "Christ the Lord is ris'n today."
 Look! The stone is rolled away. Go and tell the world today!
 He is not here for He is risen. Come to the place where Jesus lay.
 Now go and share the wond'rous story: "Christ the Lord is ris'n today.
 Christ the Lord is ris'n today. Christ the Lord is ris'n today."*

Easter Prayer

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

The Blessing

P: The Lord bless you and keep you.
The Lord make his face shine on you and be gracious to you.
The Lord look on you with favor and give you peace.

NO SUNDAY SCHOOL & ADULT BIBLE CLASS: There will be no Sunday School or Adult Bible Class on Sunday, April 5th and Sunday, April 12th.

MONDAY, APRIL 6TH WORSHIP: There will be no worship service on Monday, April 6th. (The Monday after Easter.)

FINANCIAL UPDATE: For the eight months ended February 28, 2015, contributions were $15,239 (4%) above budgeted needs. In addition, contributions for the eight months ended February 28, 2015 were above the prior year by $41,536 (13%).

As a result of exceeding our budgeted contributions and being significantly below budgeted expenditures due to having one Pastor, we are in a significantly improved cash position compared to the prior year. In our current position, we should not have to draw on our line of credit during the upcoming months to meet our obligations, which will be a great blessing to the Congregation. We thank you for your past and continued support of the ministry at St. Paul's.

TEHAN GREENHOUSE FLOWER ORDER: Tehan Greenhouses, Inc., located at 1515 E. Rawson Avenue in Oak Creek, has agreed to join our Scrip Program again this year. They are offering us a great deal on hanging baskets, flats and all other items they have to offer. Starting today, we will be selling these certificates to our St. Paul's school and church families and friends. There is a flier on the counter in the narthex with more information to order.

PASTOR CONFERENCE: On Monday, April 13th, 9:00am – 4:00pm, St. Paul's is hosting the Western Lakes Pastor Conference. The Conference is made up of about 50 pastors in the Milwaukee area. The host congregation will also provide refreshments and lunch for the conference. In order to help with the cost, there are sign-up sheets on the counter in the narthex for people to donate food items for that day. Thank you for helping us out.

WISCONSIN LUTHERAN HIGH SCHOOL SERVICE OF DEDICATION—Join us for a service of dedication on Sunday, April 26, at 1:30 p.m. as Wisconsin Lutheran High School gives thanks and praise for the completed building expansion. The service will take place in the auditorium with guest preacher Pastor Aaron Christie (Trinity, Waukesha). An open house with tours, appetizers, and presentations in the new spaces will be held from 2:30-5:00 p.m. All are invited to attend.

THE WISCONSIN SINGERS CONCERT—Wisconsin Lutheran High School is excited to again host The Wisconsin Singers, a premier group of students who have auditioned from across the state and who entertain more than 40,000 annually with their stellar vocals, stunning choreography and spectacular big band sound.

Wisconsin Singers will present a concert of Broadway show tunes in the auditorium at Wisconsin Lutheran High School on Sunday, April 26, at 6:00 p.m. Tickets cost $15 for adults, and $10 for students and seniors, and can be purchased at WLHS or by calling 414-453-4567. The concert will include the Wisco Kids show choir and Inspiration vocal jazz ensemble.

LUTHERAN WOMEN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY SPRING RALLY: The LWMS Milwaukee Metro South Circuit cordially invites grandmothers, mothers, and daughters of all ages to attend their Mother/Daughter Spring Rally - which will be held on Saturday, April 25, 2015 at St. Paul's Lutheran Church - Muskego, S66W14325 Janesville Road, Muskego, WI. Registration is from 8:00 - 8:15am - with the rally starting at 8:30am. Join with your sisters in Christ to hear the mother/daughter team of Karen and Talia Spiegelberg share how fun and easy mission work as a family can be - and that you don't have to go to overseas mission fields to share the love of Jesus! You're also invited to stay for our FREE 'Tea' (light lunch) following the rally. Feel free to fancy dress for a tea - if you so desire (don't forget your hats, ladies!) Door prizes and a 'fashion show' follow. For more information and a map, the LWMS Spring Rally flyers are located in the church narthex. There is no cost to attend our rallies (but a freewill offering is collected to support LWMS/WELS missions). Hope to see you at our rally!

COMMUNION SCHEDULE CHANGES: With the all the special services in this month, there are some changes in the communion schedule April. The Lord's Supper will be celebrated on the following dates in April. They are:
