THE INVOCATION

P: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you.

C: And also with you.

THE CONFESSION OF SINS

P: We have come into the presence of God, who created us to love and serve him as his dear children. But we have disobeyed him and deserve only his wrath and punishment. Therefore, let us confess our sins to him and plead for his mercy.

C: Merciful Father in heaven, I am altogether sinful from birth. In countless ways I have sinned against you and do not deserve to be called your child. But trusting in Jesus, my Savior, I pray: Have mercy on me according to your unfailing love. Cleanse me from my sin, and take away my guilt.

P: God, our heavenly Father has forgiven all your sins. By the perfect life and innocent death of our Lord Jesus Christ, he has removed your guilt forever. You are his own dear child. May God give you strength to live according to his will.

C: Amen.

The Congregation Remains Seated

P: In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C: (Spoken) Amen.

P: Our Lord Jesus Christ gave His Church the command to baptize when he said: "All authority in heaven and earth has been given to me. Therefore, go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you."

Scripture makes plain the universal need for Baptism. As children of Adam, we belong to a fallen race. From our parents we inherit a sinful nature and would be lost forever unless delivered by our Lord Jesus Christ. He willingly took on himself the curse of sin and by his death on the cross redeemed us and all people.

Christ's almighty Word gives Baptism its power to save. The apostle Peter declares, "Baptism now saves you." Scripture also clearly teaches that the power and promise of Baptism is intended for young and old alike. On the day of Pentecost the apostle testified, "The promise is for you and your children and for all who are far off – for all whom the Lord our God will call." By water and the Spirit, we are born again and united with Christ and his people as members of the Church.

In having children baptized, parents do what is God-pleasing. Jesus himself invited little children to become a part of his kingdom when he said: "Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. I tell you the truth, anyone who will not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it.” And he took the children in his arms, put his hands on them, and blessed them.

The pastor marks the sign of the cross on the child who has been baptized and says:

P: Receive the sign of the cross on the head and heart to mark you as a redeemed child of Christ.

Prayer

P: Let us pray. Holy God, mighty Lord, gracious Father, through your stern judgment the unbelieving world was destroyed by the flood, but according to your great mercy, you saved Noah and his family. You engulfed stubborn Pharaoh and his army in the waters of the Red Sea but led your people through the same waters to safety on dry land. In the waters of the Jordan your own Son was baptized and anointed with the Spirit. By these signs you foreshadowed the precious, cleansing bath which you give us in Holy Baptism.

Clinging to your command and promise, we ask that you would look with favor on Noah. Through the water of baptism all sin inherited from Adam, and any other evil he may do, was drowned in him. Set him apart from the unbelieving world and hold him safe and secure in the holy ark of the Church. Keep him always fervent in spirit and joyful in hope so that he may honor your holy name and at last receive, together with all your people, the promised inheritance of eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

C: (Spoken) Amen.

The Apostles' Creed

P: Let us confess the faith of the Church, the faith into which Noah has been baptized, the Apostles' Creed.

ALL: I believe in God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day he rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty. From there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Public Recognition

The pastor asks the sponsors:

P: Before the Lord and his Church, I ask you, was Noah David Manske baptized in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit?

Response: Yes, Noah was baptized in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

The pastor, laying his hand on the one baptized, says:

P: The almighty God – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit – has forgiven all your sins. By your baptism, you have been born again and made a dear child of your Father in heaven. May God strengthen you to live in your baptismal grace all the days of your life. Peace be with you. Amen.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

THE FIRST LESSON.....Obadiah 1-4, 8, 10, 15, 17-18, 21

The Edomites were proud enemies of the children of Israel. God would condemn Edom's sin of pride and warn against repeating it. How easy it is for us to fall into the sin of pride. We also need to listen to the prophet's message of humility.

¹ The vision of Obadiah. This is what the Sovereign Lord says about Edom — We have heard a message from the Lord: An envoy was sent to the nations to say, "Rise, and let us go against her for battle"— ² "See, I will make you small among the nations; you will be utterly despised. ³ The pride of your heart has deceived you, you who live in the clefts of the rocks and make your home on the heights, you who say to yourself, 'Who can bring me down to the ground?' ⁴ Though you soar like the eagle and make your nest among the stars, from there I will bring you down," declares the Lord.... ⁸ "In that day," declares the Lord, "will I not destroy the wise men of Edom, men of understanding in the mountains of Esau?... ¹⁰ Because of the violence against your brother Jacob, you will be covered with shame; you will be destroyed forever. ¹⁵ "The day of the Lord is near for all nations. As you have done, it will be done to you; your deeds will return upon your own head.... ¹⁷ But on Mount Zion will be deliverance; it will be holy, and the house of Jacob will possess its inheritance. ¹⁸ The house of Jacob will be a fire and the house of Joseph a flame; the house of Esau will be stubble, and they will set it on fire and consume it. There will be no survivors from the house of Esau." The Lord has spoken.... ²¹ Deliverers will go up on Mount Zion to govern the mountains of Esau. And the kingdom will be the Lord's.

THE PSALM OF THE DAY Psalm 62

Christian Worship Pg. 88

Refrain

The might-y Lord is with us; the God of Ja-cob is our for-tress.

Psalm tone

My soul finds rest in God alone;*
my salvation comes from him.
He alone is my rock and my salvation;*
he is my fortress, I will never be shaken.
Find rest, O my soul, in God alone;*
my hope comes from him.

Refrain

Though your riches increase,*
do not set your heart on them.
My salvation and my honor depend on God;*
he is my mighty rock, my refuge.
Trust in him at all times, O people;*
pour out your hearts to him, for God is our refuge.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son*
and to the Holy Spirit,
as it was in the beginning,*
is now, and will be forever. Amen.

Refrain

THE SECOND LESSON..... Jude 3-7, 20-23

Jude urges us to “contend for the faith” which is “under attack” from false teachers. Pride leads people to reject God’s Word. Pride caused angels to fall from heaven. We are to “build ourselves up in our most holy faith” so that we will be “brought to eternal life” and others as well.

³ Dear friends, although I was very eager to write to you about the salvation we share, I felt I had to write and urge you to contend for the faith that was once for all entrusted to the saints. ⁴ For certain men whose condemnation was written about long ago have secretly slipped in among you. They are godless men, who change the grace of our God into a license for immorality and deny Jesus Christ our only Sovereign and Lord. ⁵ Though you already know all this, I want to remind you that the Lord delivered his people out of Egypt, but later destroyed those who did not believe. ⁶ And the angels who did not keep their positions of authority but abandoned their own home — these he has kept in darkness, bound with everlasting chains for judgment on the great Day. ⁷ In a similar way, Sodom and Gomorrah and the surrounding towns gave themselves up to sexual immorality and perversion. They serve as an example of those who suffer the punishment of eternal fire.... ²⁰ But you, dear friends, build yourselves up in your most holy faith and pray in the Holy Spirit. ²¹ Keep yourselves in God’s love as you wait for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to bring you to eternal life. ²² Be merciful to those who doubt; ²³ snatch others from the fire and save them; to others show mercy, mixed with fear-hating even the clothing stained by corrupted flesh.

VERSE OF THE DAY

THE GOSPEL LESSON..... Luke 12:13-21

The parable of the Rich Farmer is a warning against pride. This farmer thought he was safe and secure – with many years left on this earth. That very night he lost everything – his wealth and his soul. May God make us rich “where it really counts.”

¹³ Someone in the crowd said to him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me." ¹⁴ Jesus replied, "Man, who appointed me a judge or an arbiter between you?" ¹⁵ Then he said to them, "Watch out! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; a man's life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions." ¹⁶ And he told them this parable: "The ground of a certain rich man produced a good crop. ¹⁷ He thought to himself, 'What shall I do? I have no place to store my crops.' ¹⁸ "Then he said, 'This is what I'll do. I will tear down my barns and build bigger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. ¹⁹ And I'll say to myself, "You have plenty of good things laid up for many years. Take life easy; eat, drink and be merry." ' ²⁰ "But God said to him, 'You fool! This very night your life will be demanded from you. Then who will get what you have prepared for yourself?' ²¹ "This is how it will be with anyone who stores up things for himself but is not rich toward God."

C: Praise be to you, O Christ!

THE SERMON Obadiah 1-4, 8, 10, 15, 17-18, 21

Obadiah-The Prophet of Humility

The people of Edom were lifelong enemies of the Israelites. The Edomites were like a thorn in the flesh as they seized every opportunity to cause Israel trouble. They were proud of it. The message of Obadiah was a message from God that said: "You should not have done this, Edom! You should not do it again!" God would condemn Edom's sin of pride and warn against repeating. How easy it is for the Christian to fall into the sin of pride. We also need to listen to this prophet and his message of humility.
