THE INVOCATION

P: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you.

C: And also with you.

THE CONFESSION OF SINS

P: We have come into the presence of God, who created us to love and serve him as his dear children. But we have disobeyed him and deserve only his wrath and punishment. Therefore, let us confess our sins to him and plead for his mercy.

C: Merciful Father in heaven, I am altogether sinful from birth. In countless ways I have sinned against you and do not deserve to be called your child. But trusting in Jesus, my Savior, I pray: Have mercy on me according to your unfailing love. Cleanse me from my sin, and take away my guilt.

P: God, our heavenly Father has forgiven all your sins. By the perfect life and innocent death of our Lord Jesus Christ, he has removed your guilt forever. You are his own dear child. May God give you strength to live according to his will.

C: Amen.

PRAYER AND PRAISE

P: In the peace of forgiveness, let us praise the Lord.

OH, TASTE AND SEE

C: Oh, taste and see that the Lord is good. Bless - ed are they who take ref - uge in him. Your Word, O Lord, is e - ter - nal; it stands firm in the heav - ens. Your faith - ful - ness con - tin - ues for - ev - er. Oh, taste and see that the Lord is good. Bless - ed are they who take ref - uge in him.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Lord, keep your household, the Church, in continual godliness and set us free from all adversities, that under your protection, we may serve you with true devotion and holy deeds; through Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

THE FIRST LESSON.....2 Chronicles 26:16-23

The alternative to reordering our ambition is to see it grow like a cancer until it destroys us. In Uzziah's case the success that God gave him became a snare. So successful was he in achieving wealth and power that he decided he knew everything better than God did. In his presumption the leprosy on his soul became leprosy also on his body, a disease that made his wealth and power empty and devoid of any satisfaction. There are a lot of people like Uzziah today. Their ambitions and efforts have been blessed by God, so that they imagine that they know it all, including what God should have said in his Word but didn't say. They presume to correct the Bible so that it fits better with their own vain thinking. The mind bent on service in the footsteps of the lowly Savior is content first and foremost with all that God has said.

<sup>16</sup> But after Uzziah became powerful, his pride led to his downfall. He was unfaithful to the Lord his God, and entered the temple of the Lord to burn incense on the altar of incense. <sup>17</sup> Azariah the priest with eighty other courageous priests of the Lord followed him in. <sup>18</sup> They confronted him and said, "It is not right for you, Uzziah, to burn incense to the Lord. That is for the priests, the descendants of Aaron, who have been consecrated to burn incense. Leave the sanctuary, for you have been unfaithful; and you will not be honored by the Lord God." <sup>19</sup> Uzziah, who had a censer in his hand ready to burn incense, became angry. While he was raging at the priests in their presence before the incense altar in the Lord's temple, leprosy broke out on his forehead. <sup>20</sup> When Azariah the chief priest and all the other priests looked at him, they saw that he had leprosy on his forehead, so they hurried him out. Indeed, he himself was eager to leave, because the Lord had afflicted him. <sup>21</sup> King Uzziah had leprosy until the day he died. He lived in a separate house—leprous, and excluded from the temple of the Lord. Jotham his son had charge of the palace and governed the people of the land. <sup>22</sup> The other events of Uzziah's reign, from beginning to end, are recorded by the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz. <sup>23</sup> Uzziah rested with his fathers and was buried near them in a field for burial that belonged to the kings, for people said, "He had leprosy." And Jotham his son succeeded him as king.

THE PSALM OF THE DAY ..... Psalm 22

Refrain

Lamb of God, you take a - way the sin of the world; have mer - cy on us.

Psalm tone

My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?*

Why are you so far from saving me?

I am a worm and not a man,*

scorned by men and despised by the people.

All who see me mock me;*

they hurl insults, shaking their heads:

“He trusts in the LORD; let the LORD rescue him.*

Let him deliver him, since he delights in him.”

Refrain

My strength is dried up, and my tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth;*
you lay me in the dust of death.

A band of evil men has encircled me,*
they have pierced my hands and my feet.

They divide my garments among them*
and cast lots for my clothing.

But you, O LORD, be not far off;*

O my Strength, come quickly to help me.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son***

and to the Holy Spirit,

as it was in the beginning,***

is now, and will be forever. Amen.

THE SECOND LESSON ..... 1Corinthians 9:7-12,19-23

Next to the Savior himself, there is probably no better example of proper ambition than that which Paul gives. If we measure ourselves against the Savior we might only despair. If we measure ourselves against Paul we can at least see one who took Jesus’ words about ambition seriously. See what good it did, what a blessing it was and still is for the church! He not only served everyone he could; he served by putting himself in their place, seeing himself as one of them, so that he could apply all the truth of God’s Word to their particular situation and circumstance. Notice the last line of the reading: he did it all so that he might also share in the gospel’s blessing. Serving with the gospel, the gospel became his anew in every man’s circumstance; its depth and its richness he could see and appreciate and apply to himself all the more.

<sup>7</sup> Who serves as a soldier at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat of its grapes? Who tends a flock and does not drink of the milk? <sup>8</sup> Do I say this merely from a human point of view? Doesn’t the Law say the same thing? <sup>9</sup> For it is written in the Law of Moses: “Do not muzzle an ox while it is treading out the grain.” Is it about oxen that God is concerned? <sup>10</sup> Surely he says this for us, doesn’t he? Yes, this was written for us, because when the plowman plows and the thresher threshes, they ought to do so in the hope of sharing in the harvest. <sup>11</sup> If we have sown spiritual seed among you, is it too much if we reap a material harvest from you? <sup>12</sup> If others have this right of support from you, shouldn’t we have it all the more? But we did not use this right. On the contrary, we put up with anything rather than hinder the gospel of Christ. <sup>19</sup> Though I am free and belong to no man, I make myself a slave to everyone, to win as many as possible. <sup>20</sup> To the Jews I became like a Jew, to win the Jews. To those under the law I became like one under the law (though I myself am not under the law), so as to win those under the law. <sup>21</sup> To those not having the law I became like one not having the law (though I am not free from God’s law but am under Christ’s law), so as to win those not having the law. <sup>22</sup> To the weak I became weak, to win the weak. I have become all things to all men so that by all possible means I might save some. <sup>23</sup> I do all this for the sake of the gospel, that I may share in its blessings.

THE GOSPEL LESSON..... Mark 10:35-45

Once again the disciples, like us, get it wrong. Jesus has just finished telling them of his coming Passion, and all they can think about is worldly ambition, which one of them should be first. Just like he does when discussing family and wealth, Jesus turns everything upside down from the way that we by nature are inclined to look at things. In fact it is our ambition to be first and have our own way that wrecks family life and perverts the proper uses of wealth. Ah, but in Jesus' way both family life and wealth become great blessings. For the ambition is to serve, not to be served. That service is ever asking: How can I help? Instead of When is it my turn? Look who has led by example! The One who alone deserves to be served has served the lowliest of the low. He served me, even me, by coming to find, to rescue, to save me by giving his own life for my ransom.

<sup>35</sup> Then James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to him. "Teacher," they said, "we want you to do for us whatever we ask." <sup>36</sup> "What do you want me to do for you?" he asked. <sup>37</sup> They replied, "Let one of us sit at your right and the other at your left in your glory." <sup>38</sup> "You don't know what you are asking," Jesus said. "Can you drink the cup I drink or be baptized with the baptism I am baptized with?" <sup>39</sup> "We can," they answered. Jesus said to them, "You will drink the cup I drink and be baptized with the baptism I am baptized with, <sup>40</sup> but to sit at my right or left is not for me to grant. These places belong to those for whom they have been prepared." <sup>41</sup> When the ten heard about this, they became indignant with James and John. <sup>42</sup> Jesus called them together and said, "You know that those who are regarded as rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their high officials exercise authority over them. <sup>43</sup> Not so with you. Instead, whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant, <sup>44</sup> and whoever wants to be first must be slave of all. <sup>45</sup> For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many."

THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day he rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty. From there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Announcements

ADULT CONFIRMATION: This weekend, at the 8:00am worship service, Scott and Amy Seymer and Stacy Waldron, will be welcomed through Adult Confirmation as new members of St. Paul’s. We wish them and their families the Lord’s richest blessings as they continue to grow in Christ.

VOTERS MEETING: A Voters Meeting has been scheduled for Tuesday, November 10th at 7pm. The purpose of the meeting is to 1. Hear updates from each board; 2. Possible changes to the Gift Trust Fund will be discussed; 3. Elections to fill empty Board positions. 4. Designate a new organ as the project of the 150th anniversary celebration at St. Paul’s.

GIFT TRUST FUND CHANGES: The Gift Trust Fund was established to provide support for the Mission of St. Paul’s. The intention of the distributions is to provide Tuition Assistance for our members that are pursuing a WELS teaching or Pastoral degree. The distributions will not be used for building or current budgetary items. Currently, we can’t use the income of the Fund until the account is worth $50,000. We are suggesting that we change the number to $40,000. If the changes are approved at the November 10th Voters Meeting, we will be able to begin providing the support. Brought to you from the Planned Giving Committee members; Donn Johnson, Cindy Wirtz, and Todd Grunze. Feel free to call Donn if you have questions. 414-427-5868.

DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME ENDS: Just a reminder that Daylight Saving Time ends next Sunday, November 1st at 2am. Clocks will be set back one hour. Enjoy the extra hour of sleep next week before our worship services.

MISSION FESTIVAL: Mission Festival for this year will be on the weekend of November 22-23. Our guest preacher will be Pastor John Borgwardt. Pastor Borgwardt serves at Living Word Lutheran Church in Waukesha. Living Word in Waukesha was founded in 2003 as a joint mission project of the entire Western Lakes Conference, which is basically all of the WELS churches in Waukesha County as well as others nearby that wanted to join the conference. As a result, Living Word didn't receive any subsidy from the Synod (besides the generous help from the Church Extension Fund to buy land and eventually build a facility), so each of the congregations in the Western Lakes Conference became Living Word's "mother congregations" to help Living Word until it had its own facility and could stand on its own. With the help, Living Word has now been able to purchase land across from Waukesha West High School, and hopes to build in 2017. Among its ministries, Living Word offers a more blended style of worship to appeal to those in the community who aren't comfortable with traditional worship, and it hopes to build a facility that can hold an after school program geared toward high school students. Both of these ministries will complement the other ministries the area WELS churches already offer so that we can appeal to more of the unchurched in our community and bring them into a saving relationship with our Lord Jesus. He will also have a presentation between the services about Living Word Lutheran Church.

MISSION FESTIVAL CRAFT AND BAKE SALE: The Mary and Martha Society will be holding a Craft and Bake Sale in conjunction with Mission Festival, November 22 & 23. All members of St. Paul's are invited to donate craft items and baked good to this sale. If you are donating something: Please bring your craft or baked goods to the narthex of the church on Saturday morning, November 21st before 12:00 noon or bring them before the first service on Sunday. If you bring craft items, please pre-price them. We can price the food items for you. All donations are much appreciated and the proceeds from this sale will benefit a mission within our synod.

ALTAR FLOWERS: The altar flowers this week are given by Jacque and Doreen Vallier in celebration of their 13th wedding anniversary.

WLHS VETERANS DAY OBSERVANCE: Wisconsin Lutheran High School and its students invite you to attend the annual Veterans Day observance on Wednesday, November 11. AUDIO-VISUAL COMMITTEE: This past week at the Board of Elders meeting, it was discussed that we once again try to put together an audio-visual committee to run the sound board at each of the worship services. In addition to putting together a group of people who would be assigned to each service, we are also looking for someone to coordinate the schedule. If you are interested or wish more information, please talk or email Pastor Adams

(badams@stpaulsfranklin.org), or talk or email Mr. Steve Baade (sbaude@wi.rr.com - chairman of our board of Elders).

HISTORICAL PICTURES: As we put together a history booklet over the next year, we are looking for additional pictures from St. Paul's History, especially older pictures of confirmation classes, weddings, interior & exterior pictures of the first church on College Avenue and the 1916 building that was previously on this site. We would like to use them in various ways. If you wish to have them back, please mark them so that we can scan them and return them to you. If you have any questions, please talk to Pastor or Nancy Adams.

FUTURE PASTOR'S OFFICES: We will soon be starting construction on new offices for the Pastors. The cost to complete this project will be approximately $18,000. To date we have received $7,526.00. This work will be done with our own people including rough carpentry, drywall, insulation, painting, suspended ceilings and floor covering. If you are able to help financially in addition to your weekly offering, please place in separate envelopes stating "New Pastor's Offices".
