The Festival of the Reformation

October 26 & 27, 2025

Today we celebrate the Festival of the Reformation of the Church. What does that mean? It means that today, we remember why we are called Lutherans.

The effect of the Lutheran Reformation of the Church on the history of the world can hardly be overstated. Quite simply, it caused one of the most profound sea-changes in history. In fact, when U.S. News and World Report ranked the most important events of the last 1000 years, the Lutheran Reformation placed second, right behind Gutenberg's moveable type printing press. Now consider that for a minute... That means that they considered the Lutheran Reformation to be of greater significance than the discovery of the New World (number 3 on the list).

But why? And, who was this Luther guy? He was a monk, a priest, and a professor at a little university in Wittenberg, Germany. Why would a guy like that be listed as the third most influential person of the last 1,000 years (1000 Years and 1,000 People, Gottlieb and Bowers)? More important than Einstein, Edison or George Washington? Why? All for the reason that we call ourselves "Lutherans" and celebrate this Festival of the Lutheran Reformation.

During the dark days of the Middle Ages, the truth of God's Word was hidden away in monasteries. The Church of that day was not teaching that we are saved by Jesus' death and resurrection. Instead, people were told that they needed to try and earn their way to heaven – or worse, that they had to buy their way to heaven. The truth of God's Word was rejected, and the traditions of men put in its place.

Doctor Luther changed all that on October 31, 1517, when he nailed 95 Statements for Debate on the door of the Castle Church in Wittenberg. He said that the Bible should be our only source of teaching, not man-made traditions. He showed that God saved us by grace alone, by faith alone. He returned the Bible into the hands of the people and quite literally changed the world.

Today, we are not here to celebrate a man. We're here to celebrate the grace of God who Christ died and rose for me, so I will be in heaven forever. By Grace Alone. By Faith Alone. By Scripture Alone. Those statements could be restated as one truth about how we are justified in God's sight: In Christ Alone!

In Christ Alone!

The Invocation

P: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you.

C: (Spoken) And also with you.

Confession & Absolution of Sins

P: God invites us to come into his presence and worship him with humble and penitent hearts. Therefore, let us acknowledge our sinfulness and ask him to forgive us.

C: Holy and merciful Father, I confess that I am by nature sinful, and that I have disobeyed you in my thoughts, words and actions. I have done what is evil and failed to do what is good. For this I deserve your punishment both now and in eternity. But I am truly sorry for my sins, and trusting in my Savior Jesus Christ, I pray: Lord, have mercy on me, a sinner.

P: God, our heavenly Father, has been merciful to us and has given his only Son to be the atoning sacrifice for our sins. Therefore, as a called servant of Christ and by his authority, I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C: (Spoken) Amen.

The Prayer of the Day

P: Gracious Lord, our refuge and strength, pour out your Holy Spirit on your faithful people. Keep them steadfast in your Word, protect and comfort them in all temptations, defend them against all their enemies, and bestow on the church your saving peace; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C: (Spoken) Amen.

In Christ Alone – We Are Strengthened In His Word

The First Lesson

Jeremiah 31:31-34

*The truth of God's new covenant of grace transforms our hearts
so we freely and gladly follow God's will.*

³¹ “The days are coming,” declares the Lord,
“when I will make a new covenant
with the people of Israel
and with the people of Judah.

³² It will not be like the covenant
I made with their ancestors
when I took them by the hand
to lead them out of Egypt,
because they broke my covenant,
though I was a husband to them,”
declares the Lord.

³³ “This is the covenant I will make with the people of Israel
after that time,” declares the Lord.

“I will put my law in their minds
and write it on their hearts.
I will be their God,
and they will be my people.

³⁴ No longer will they teach their neighbor,
or say to one another, ‘Know the Lord,’
because they will all know me,
from the least of them to the greatest,”
declares the Lord.

“For I will forgive their wickedness
and will remember their sins no more.”

Junior Choir Anthem

Lord, Keep Us Steadfast in Your Word (9:00 am)

*Lord, keep us steadfast in Your Word;
Curb those who by deceit or sword
Would wrest the kingdom from Your Son
And bring naught all He has done.*

*Lord Jesus Christ, Your pow'r make known,
For You are Lord of lords alone;
Defend Your holy Church that we May sing Your praise eternally.*

*O Comforter of priceless worth,
Send peace and unity on earth;
Support us in our final strife
And lead us out of death to life,
And lead us out of death to life.*

The Second Lesson

Romans 3:19-28

St. Paul encourages us to stand firm in the freedom that we receive in the truth about Jesus Christ.

¹⁹ Now we know that whatever the law says, it says to those who are under the law, so that every mouth may be silenced and the whole world held accountable to God.

²⁰ Therefore no one will be declared righteous in God's sight by the works of the law; rather, through the law we become conscious of our sin.

²¹ But now apart from the law the righteousness of God has been made known, to which the Law and the Prophets testify. ²² This righteousness is given through faith in Jesus Christ to all who believe. There is no difference between Jew and Gentile, ²³ for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, ²⁴ and all are justified freely by his grace through the redemption that came by Christ Jesus. ²⁵ God presented Christ as a sacrifice of atonement, through the shedding of his blood—to be received by faith. He did this to demonstrate his righteousness, because in his forbearance he had left the sins committed beforehand unpunished— ²⁶ he did it to demonstrate his righteousness at the present time, so as to be just and the one who justifies those who have faith in Jesus.

²⁷ Where, then, is boasting? It is excluded. Because of what law? The law that requires works? No, because of the law that requires faith. ²⁸ For we maintain that a person is justified by faith apart from the works of the law.

Gospel Lesson

John 8:31-36

The truth of the gospel sets us free.

³¹ To the Jews who had believed him, Jesus said, "If you hold to my teaching, you are really my disciples. ³² Then you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free." ³³ They answered him, "We are Abraham's descendants and have never been slaves of anyone. How can you say that we shall be set free?" ³⁴ Jesus replied, "Very truly I tell you, everyone who sins is a slave to sin. ³⁵ Now a slave has no permanent place in the family, but a son belongs to it forever. ³⁶ So, if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed.

In Christ Alone – We Confess Our Faith

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day he rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty. From there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Responsive Prayer

P: Almighty and eternal God, when the time had fully come, you sent your Son to take our place under the demands of the law and to endure the just punishment for our sins. For our sake you accepted his sacrifice on the cross and raised him from death to glorious splendor.

C: Praise the Lord, my soul, and forget not all his benefits.

P: When the time had fully come, you bestowed your Spirit on your people as a testimony that you had called them to proclaim the gospel to every creature. Equipped and encouraged, they carried the Word of salvation into all the world.

C: The Lord reigns. Let the earth be glad; let the distant shores rejoice.

P: When the time had fully come, you raised up your servant Martin Luther to restore the pure and right teaching of the Scriptures to a troubled Church. You renewed your people with the light of your love, and your holy church grew and prospered throughout the world.

C: God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble.

P: When the time had fully come, you made our forefathers bold to take their stand on the truth of your Word. You have blessed their sons and daughters and have enabled us to preserve and proclaim the saving gospel.

C: Sing to the Lord, for he has done glorious things; let this be known to all the world.

P: Let this be a time, O Lord, when you renew us again by Word and sacrament, when you reform our hearts and minds, and when you restore to us the joy of fellowship and service. Grant to us in this age and in this place the courage of the apostles, the steadfastness of the reformers, and the dedication of those who have gone before us.

C: May the Lord our God be with us as he was with our fathers; may he never leave us nor forsake us.

P: Create in us pure hearts, O God, and renew steadfast spirits within us.

C: May God be gracious to us and bless us and make his face shine on us, that his ways may be known on earth, his salvation among all nations. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and forever. Amen.

In Christ Alone – We Receive His Blessing

The Blessing

ALTAR FLOWERS: This weekend's altar flowers are given by Jacque & Doreen Vallier in thanksgiving for their 23rd wedding anniversary.

FINANCIAL UPDATE AND SPECIAL APPEAL: We are profoundly grateful for your ongoing and generous voluntary support. Your commitment is the foundation upon which we operate and sustain our mission of spreading the Good News of Christ's sacrifice. As our congregation president, Jacque Vallier, recently shared, we are facing a significant financial challenge. Our budget, established last June, is currently projecting a shortfall of approximately $35,000. We have already taken prudent and difficult steps to manage this trend of lower-than-anticipated giving. Examples of the measures taken include:

- Not employing a full-time first-grade teacher
- Postponing plans for additional support for Pastor Adams, including the potential for a second Pastor
- Reducing our financial support for WELS missions.

To avoid further critical cuts to our ministry and outreach, we come to you today to ask for your special financial support. We ask that you prayerfully consider how you can help reverse this trend, trusting in our Heavenly Father to guide our hearts and hands. To make it easy to act, a special appeal envelope for this request is available on the narthex counter. Thank you for your sacrifice, your commitment to our shared mission, and your faithfulness. If you have any questions or comments regarding the fiscal responsibility of our congregation and community, please speak with Pastor Adams or any member of your elected council. In Christ, Your Council

ST. PAUL'S YOUTH GROUP (GRADES 7-12): Our next Youth Group meeting will be on October 26th after the 9:00 AM service. We will be continuing our study series, "Awaken." It's so easy to get lulled into a sleepy faith. We're tempted to live for ourselves, pursuing the fleeting pleasures of sin instead of pursuing a vibrant relationship with Jesus Christ. In this video and discussion series geared toward teens and filled with their stories, we will unpack what the Bible says about the life-giving, soul-awakening message of the gospel and how prayer, study of God's Word, and service equip and empower followers of Christ to overcome sin. We hope you can join us; all 7-12th graders welcome!

HOLIDAY FLORAL/EVERGREEN POT CREATIVE PROJECT: Join us here at St. Paul's for a demonstration conducted by floral designer Sharon Kiesow on Tuesday, November 18th at 6:30 PM. Create your own holiday pot to be taken home. All members of the congregation, young and old are invited. Those participating should bring a pot and at least 5 - 7 pieces of greenery (i.e. spruce, pine, evergreen). There is a signup sheet in the narthex, so Sharon has an idea of how many individuals are participating.

SUNDAY MORNING ADULT BIBLE CLASS: Christian Worship: Foundations We will explore a broad range of worship topics connected to Christian Worship: Hymnal (2021). It covers the history of worship both in the wider church and in WELS, the church year, different rites and services, roles within worship, as well as choices in art and music, the culture of worship, and its connection to outreach. This study is intended to deepen God's people's understanding of some of the principles and practices of Christian worship. Join us on Sunday mornings at 8:00 AM.

WELS 2026 YOUTH RALLY: Mark your calendars! The next WELS International Youth Rally is coming in July, 2026 — a life-changing event where thousands of young Christians gather to celebrate their faith, grow closer to God, and connect with friends from WELS churches and schools across the country. This unforgettable experience is open to all 8th grade through high school students.
